Child Safe Code of Conduct

A Child Safe Code of Conduct lists behaviours that are acceptable and those that are unacceptable. It provides a high-level statement of professional boundaries, ethical behaviour and acceptable and unacceptable behaviours. When individuals are clear about behavioural expectations, they are much more likely to act appropriately with each other and with students. When everyone is educated about the Child Safe Code of Conduct and the reasons it is so important to uphold, the College environment becomes much more transparent and people are accountable for their behaviour. Above all, a Child Safe Code of Conduct helps to protect students from harm.

The Child Safe Code of Conduct applies to:

- all staff members, including Education Support staff and temporary or casual staff
- Volunteers
- Board members
- Contractors
- External Education Providers
- The Association of Canonical Administrators
- Teaching students on placement at the College
- Visitors

The Child Safe Code of Conduct set out below is designed to stand alone. It can also be incorporated in whole or part into broader codes of conduct that are developed within the College, including other professional or occupational codes of conduct that regulate particular staff at the College.

The Code is made available to all staff, volunteers, families and students via our public website and through the College HR officer. The Code is also required to be acknowledged annually by all staff, volunteers, Board members and Canonical Administrators.

Our Child Safe Code of Conduct

This Child Safe Code of Conduct outlines appropriate standards of behaviour for all adults towards students. The Code serves to protect students, reduce any opportunities for abuse or harm to occur, and promote child safety in the College environment. Where a staff member breaches the Code, Saint Ignatius College Geelong may take disciplinary action, including in the case of serious breaches, summary dismissal. The College revises the Code annually.

Saint Ignatius College Geelong has the following expectations of behaviours and boundaries for all adults interacting with students within our College community. This includes all teaching staff, Education Support Staff, Board members, the Association of Canonical Administrators, Volunteers, Third Party Contractors, External Education Providers and parents/carers.

The College's Association of Canonical Administrators has endorsed this Child Safe Code of Conduct.
